

The Journey of a Year:

Feux Follets Stylist Guild

A Thank You

Preface

This slideshow has been made with the effort of several members of the Feux Follets Stylist Guild discord server.

Not all members were available at the time this was created.

We wanted to show our appreciation for our admins Crimson and Marion, our might as well be an admin too Wings, and all our lovely mods.

From Aiwei

I like that the place is active everyday, but not too busy or chaotic-feeling. There is lots of chill, and I enjoy seeing all the glitches people encounter!

From Wyhter

I love being in this server so much! It's so fun and friendly and I feel safe talking about whatever I want without thinking I'll be judged. You guys work so hard to make this amazing community thrive and I couldn't be more grateful

From Melodyrose and Ray

Melody Rose: "What I love about Feux Follets is having a place to discuss one of my comfort games that's actually warm and cozy. Thank you for creating a safe space where I can express my love for Nikki without feeling judged!"
Translation: "Thank you for saving me from Reddit!"

From Ray: "What the guild is to me is a place where even if I'm not actively talking to people, I still feel like there are people who understand why I play it, because they're playing it for the same reasons. I feel comfortable here because I'm not the only guy playing this game."

"We also both really enjoy the challenges, and taking photos together for that, so you've given us another way to play together as best friends."

From Arl0

What I really love about the server is everyone is so welcoming, like no matter what. Not at any point was I ever intimidated to post anything!! I've only properly spoken to wings outside the server and they're SUPER lovely and always down to listen to my yaps!!

it's always so FUN and hilarious messing around in SoS together most of the time breaking the game
HAHAH
(Talking about Punzie)

From Selene

"I'm happy to be a part of this server, even though I can't really join the events since I'm in a different server, but I get to join the vc to watch it, and everyone is always really welcoming. I'm grateful to be in such a blooming Infinity Nikki community where everyone is so creative and passionate, as well as kind. The mods are very easy to talk to, and I really appreciate their hard work on maintaining this community."

From SquishShe

I'm so glad this server exists. Its so much fun to be a part of a tight knit community. Even if you can't come to every event, it doesn't matter because it's always a blast when you can! Everyone is so inclusive and kind and just passionate about fashion and the game which is awesome!

From Lieze

I only joined the discord server out of curiosity hearing there are other Nikki's playing instruments. and mind you i never used Discord before so i had zero idea what to expect from a discord community. and look at me now, i am online every day. all thanks to those three! they made me feel welcome and the server is just a safe heaven i genuinely love. their vibes, energy and friendliness is what made this server what it is; a community with many lovely people and only good vibes

From DeliciousFox

I enjoy being on this server. Everyone is so nice and supportive, very nice. The weekly fashion shows are probably one of my favourite things here. Every outfit is unique but still fitting, it really shows everyones colors (joke intended). It is also nice to see people talk about the most random things, there is always something new to learn. I've seen a whole new side of support on this server. Gotta love the people here (platonically) <3

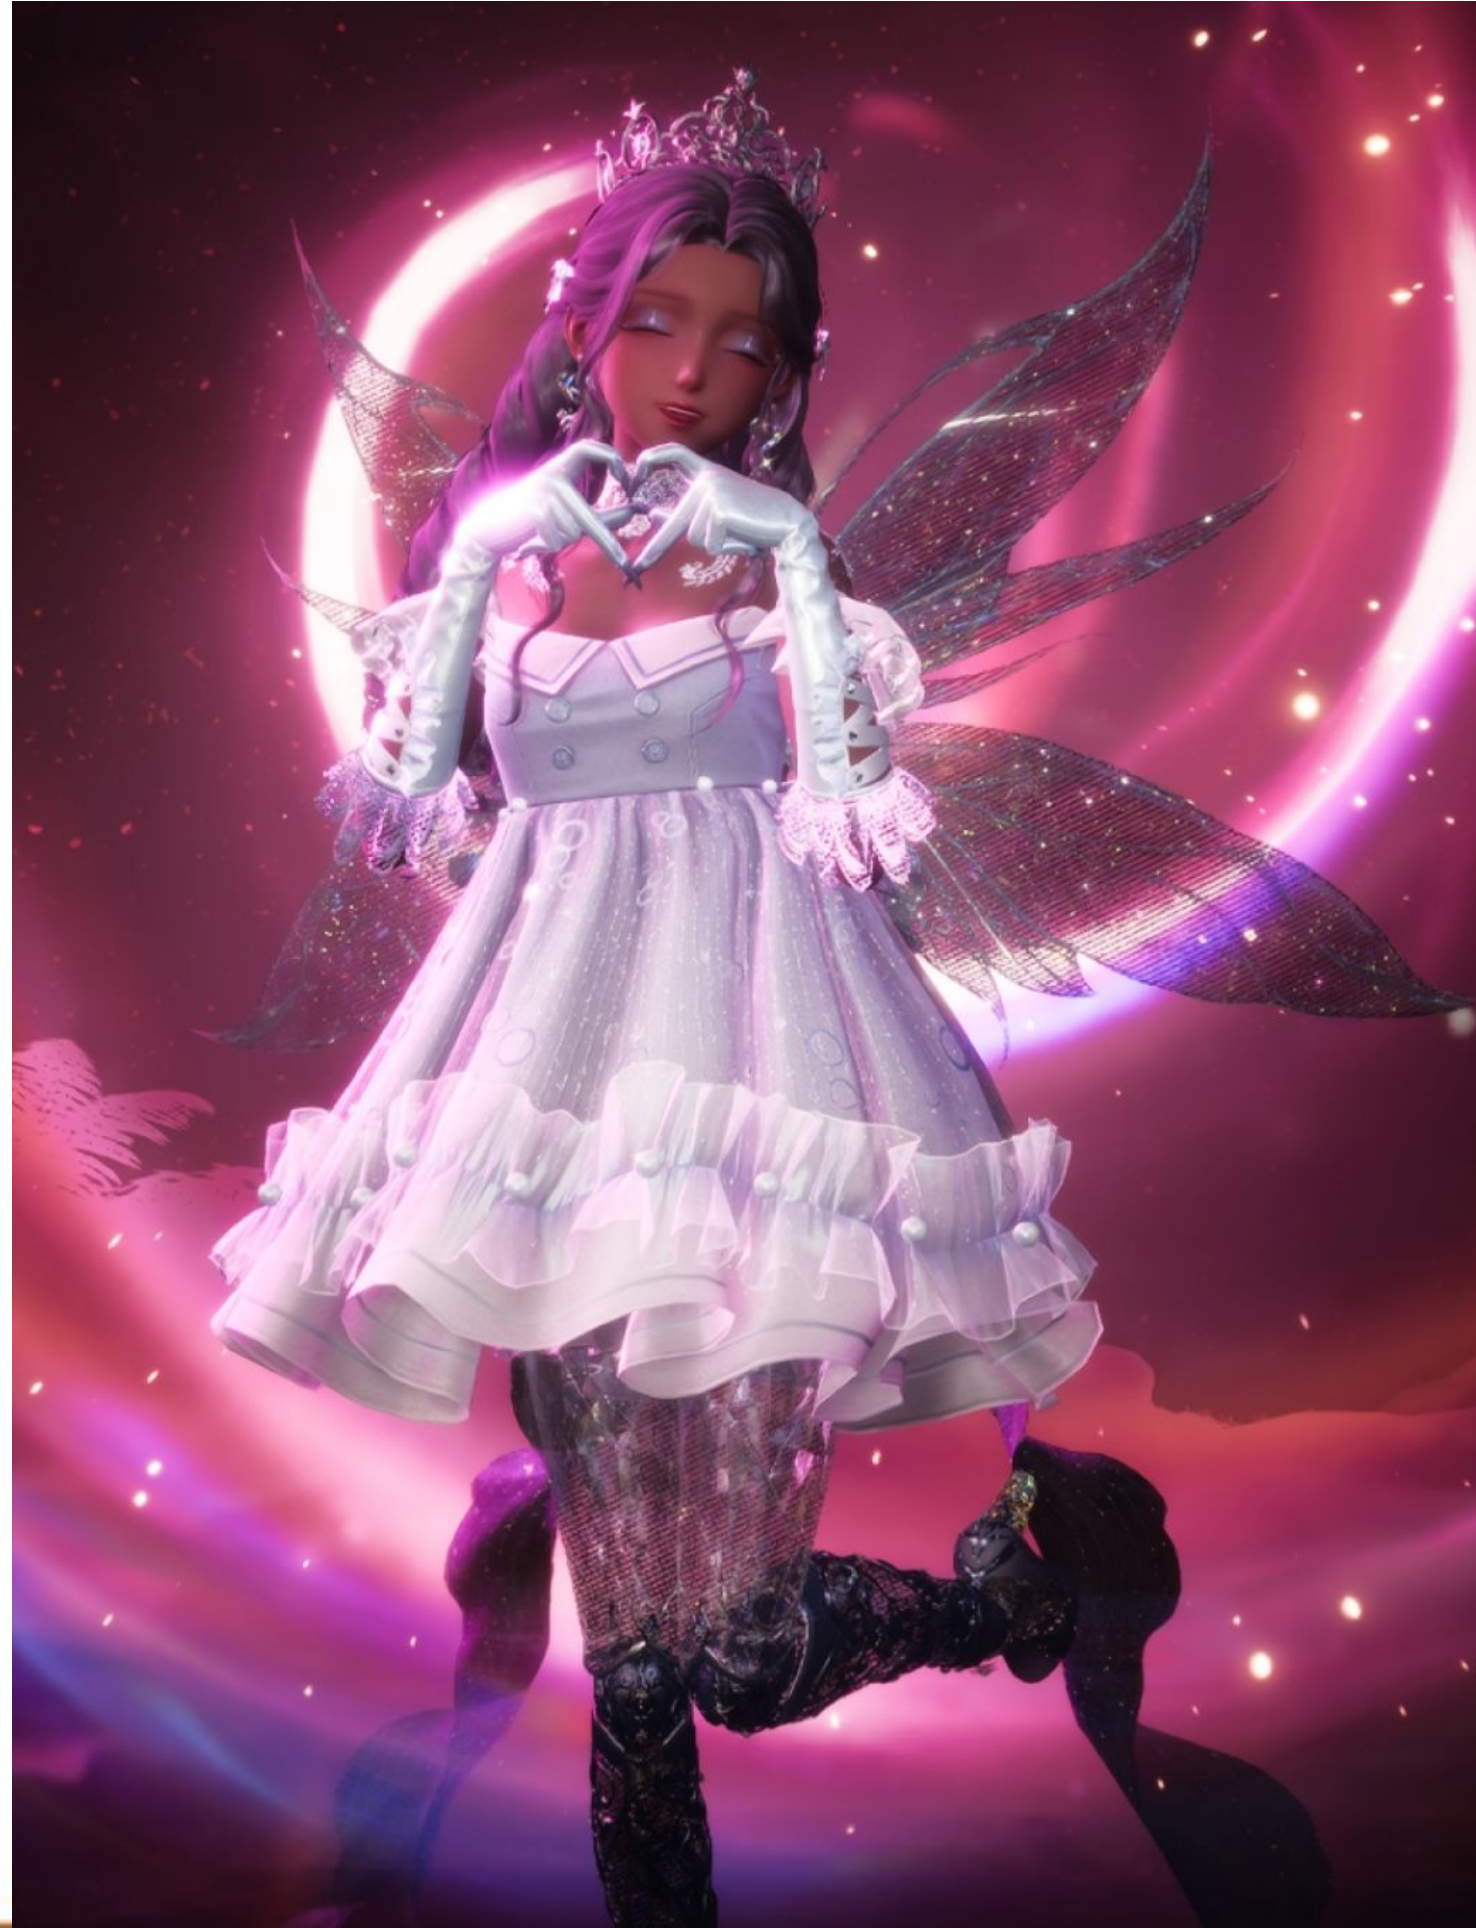

From Nikki

"The server is such a warm, friendly place with incredible people. It always makes me smile and there's nothing else online that's so unambiguously good!"

From Sunny

I really like how organized the server is and how welcoming everyone has been. Me and crimson's friendship kind of clicked immediately from just talking for 15 minutes and I felt like it was really easy to introduce myself into the server and talk to other people. Usually, in other servers, it takes me way longer to just enter group chats or talk in the VC so it was nice to feel safe and welcome enough to just be able to chat naturally.

From Givora

To the Mod Team:

Thank you so much for everything you do! Honestly, I don't know where I'd be in terms of Infinity Nikki without all of your efforts with the server. It has been a wonderful place to be these last almost 10 months!

To Crimson, Wings, and especially Marion: Thank you from the bottom of my heart. I am forever grateful for everything you all do.

Here's to another great year of Feux Follets! ♡

From Alex

what i like the most about the server is the social aspect!
The effort the mods go through to keep things smooth in the stylist guild as well as the events and gatherings with the other people in the server is incredible and i love them for it

From Ichi

I think as the first year anniversary the group that has been cultivated has proven how much of a kind loving agenda we all bring. Mods who care for and nurture the server with events and weekly to monthly challenges, the people who also make their own lil get togethers for self made events, themed collabs, taking part in the events put on and putting in further work and effort to help prop up the server. To the fellows who joined and lurk within the shadows also adding to the community with helping in game or side eyeing the chaos that occurs. This server is truly a labour of love put into it from every nook and cranny from those since the beginning to those who's came in just this second and I know its a common sentiment to say how joyous and proud it is to be apart of this niche community from the ground up we all have put a part of ourselves to help grow this beautiful tree for the ones here and now to the future incoming members. Special shout out to all who have dragged (lovingly and carefully) another person into the server to join us all here in the feux follets gang!

From Annie

I know I'm not the most active, talkative, or lively person in the group. I'm not sure if I connect with the vast majority of them, but what I do know is that, thanks to a chance encounter as small as a grain of sand, I was able to meet a great group of wonderful people who, no matter what, you can count on. I'll always be grateful for the opportunity to be part of a group where, for the first time in a long time, I feel loved and valued (or at least when my intrusive thoughts let me feel that way, ok no joking! (?))

From Mimo

Happy Anniversary! I love how welcoming and chill this server is! One of my favorite things are the weekly fashion shows. Many thanks to Marion for inviting me, Wings for helping me with server questions and Crimson for assisting me with photoshoots

From Nightshade

I really love the sense of community built in the guild! the mods were all so welcoming and accommodating of my accessibility needs and were honestly very excited to ask me questions and let me yap. it's wonderful and has to be the warmest reception i've experienced in a public server like this :) the entire mod team is so excellent at creating a welcoming and friendly environment, it feels like i can't even imagine playing IN without everyone here :)

From Momo

I love being apart of this server because it is so welcoming and inclusive! Right away I felt that I would make amazing friends here! Thank you for creating a beautiful safe space for Nikki enjoyers!!

From Ari

Dear mods, I am glad to be part of this server. You guys genuinely make this game fun, and with that the server is also fun. Wings thank you for keeping us on track, even though you would like to be the unhinged one. But, we need you to keep Marion and Crimson on track. Marion you genuinely make the game better for me, I love hanging out with since you make the game more fun while gathering materials, and I hope you are having as much fun as I have with you. Crimson I love to hang out with you in Vc and hear the kind of crime you would commit, and how you would get away with. We know not to cross your bad side, unless we don't want to go missing without a clue. And waterflame, although we didn't hang out much the times we do spend together were fun times, hope to see you again someday. Mods we love you all let's continue to make this game and the environment as pleasant as it is.

From Lyra

I love how friendly and welcoming this server is.
Whenever I've felt shy, there has always been someone to make me feel like that's ok. To everyone who has made this server what it is today:
Thank you.

From Punzie

Thank you to everyone who has contributed to this special surprise! Knowing so many members offered immediate enthusiasm, passion, and speed in this project is a testament to the hard work, patience, dedication, and eternal love our amazing admins pour into Feux Follets.

This couldn't have been done without you all — a tried and true sentiment of ours, but one held close nevertheless. Because of you, this server is a haven of serenity and beacon of hope to many. ♡ And — because of a small decision made one year ago, now, from Marion, Crimson, Wings, and members such as Waterflame and Ari — all server members have had this beautiful chance to meet, bond, and truly cherish each other. Infinity Nikki is a whimsical game about expression of the self. It is about broadening your horizons — seeking new heights, new glory, and new potentials... whilst also never forgetting your roots. In the end, Nikki is who she is because of two essential things: her own will and tenacity... and the support she receives from those who care deeply for her. Feux Follets embodies this to me. We are all little pink stars, learning who we are and doing our part to make the world a better place... one smile at a time. ♡ Thank you, again, for showing our administrative team — Marion, Crimson, Wings, and Nikki — that they are truly loved. ♡ With love, Mod Punzie.
